About the Conference

The Gandhigram Rural Institute

The Gandhigram Rural Institute – Deemed to be university was established in 1956 as one among the 14 Rural Institutes started by the Government of India. The Institute was declared to be a deemed university in August 1976 under Section 3 of the UGC Act 1956 in recognition of its exemplary services and contributions in Rural Higher Education. GRI was Accredited by the NAAC with “A++” Grade in the fourth cycle (2025) and fully funded by the Ministry of Human Resource Development through UGC, Government of India, Delhi.

Department of Applied Research

Established in 1976 under the Faculty of Rural Development, it supports the Institute’s mission of sustainable rural development. It offers programmes such as B.A. (Hons) in Demography and Development Studies, PG Diploma in Applied Gerontology, and Ph.D. degrees. With its interdisciplinary and multifaceted research and publications, it remains a key hub for applied and development-oriented research.

About the Conference

The National Conference “Navigating India’s Ageing Population: A Roadmap for “Viksit Bharat 2047”” responds to UNIDOP 2025 theme: Older Persons Driving Local and Global Action, that moves beyond ageing as a burden towards a demographic dividend. This conference will bring together stakeholders to build a national roadmap that ensures the well-being, dignity, and active participation of older persons.

Goal

To create a comprehensive roadmap integrating the wisdom and experience of elders into India’s development agenda, guiding policy, research, industry, and civil society.

Objectives

- To analyse social, economic, psychological, and health challenges.
- To showcase innovative models and programs in elderly care.
- To foster collaboration among government, academia, NGOs, and the private sector.
- To formulate evidence-based policy recommendations.
- To develop a roadmap towards an inclusive and prosperous India 2047.
